

Transitioning to your degree-seeking program at OSU

Congratulations on your successful transition to full-time, degree-seeking international student status at Oregon State University! Because you are no longer studying at the INTO OSU Center, we'd like to let you know about some important changes in how your housing, finance, and other needs will be handled.

You will now be primarily served by the International Student Advising and Services (ISAS) Office, located on the first floor of Kerr Administration building. Please refer to the table below for the appropriate resources for all your needs moving forward.
