

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION SERVICE

Master Gardener™ Program

NAME : _____

VEGETABLE GARDENING

CHAPTER 7

References: (1) MG Sustainable Gardening Handbook, Chapter 7

1. A good vegetable garden site should be located in a:
 - a. low, shady spot
 - b. bottom of hill by a fence
 - c. site near trees and shrubs
 - d. site near water and protected from wind

Reference:

Page Number:

2. A watering method that puts water right at the roots and helps control disease would be:
 - a. over-head sprinklers
 - b. frequent, light watering by hand
 - c. recycled dishwasher water
 - d. drip irrigation

Reference:

Page Number:

3. Soil fertility and pH should be checked before you prepare the soil. After that, if you are having any problems it should be checked every:
 - a. 8-10 years
 - b. 1-3 years
 - c. 6-8 years
 - d. 3-5 years

Reference:

Page Number:

4. As a Master Gardener, you would recommend crop rotation to help manage soil-borne diseases in the vegetable garden for all of the following vegetables except:
- a. potatoes to corn
 - b. broccoli to turnips
 - c. corn to cole crops
 - d. beans to potatoes

Reference:

Page Number:

5. Vegetable crops should be grouped according to their fertilizer needs. Heavy feeders include:
- a. clover
 - b. parsnip
 - a. lima beans
 - d. lettuce

Reference:

Page Number: