About Us

All about us....

The first tab on the website leads to key information about HMSC. Links include:

- Useful acronyms and links to their respective organizations
- Local maps of campus and community with transportation information
- Partners and programs
- Things you should know about the Coast.

Never lived or worked in a coastal area?

Look here:

- Important information for how to safely play and work on the beach, under bluffs, in mud flats and in or around water
- Tidal tables
- Why you never turn your back on the water. (Check out the sneaker wave video!)

Get to know your community!

- Webcams, newsletters, magazines and blogs relevant to life at HMSC
- Info on the Marine Studies Initiative
 - All about SAF, which meets each 2nd Thursday, 9 am, in Guin Library.

About You

A little about what you need to know...

This section focuses on you: where you'll be working, what office, lab and/or field safety training you'll need, and your responsibilities to OSU and your fellow workers.

Where do you work?

- In an office?
- In a lab?
- In the field?
- In or on the water?

And what do you work with?

- Animals?
- Chemicals?
- Hazardous waste?
- Seawater systems?

Find out what trainings you may need here!

Maybe you've noticed those bright red fire extinguishers conveniently stashed all around — good! But did you know you're NOT expected to use them?

That information is covered in OSU's fire extinguisher training session.

OSU's Compliance and Reporting policies covers non-technical aspects of your work. Here, the topics range from accident reporting to worker's comp.

And, if you're a Principal Investigator, don't despair — EH&S has a special Lab Safety page just for you!

Not finding what you need? Have suggestions for missing information? Bring comments to the next SAF meeting, or email us at hmsc.quickref@oregonstate.edu

Support & Report

What HMSC and OSU can do for you...

HMSC provides local service and support to OSU students, staff and faculty.

Need information? Or assistance?

- On-site AMBC, Facilities, IT, Guin Library resources and support
- OSU links to benefits, travel insurance, OSU Portal and Google apps support, webmail, email, staff tuition discounts
- Travel and Reimbursement - what you need to know before you go, and what you need to turn in if you want to be reimbursed.

You'll also find links to policies and resources for issues or challenges such as accessibility and diversity, bullying, Workers' Comp and Jones Act, as well as for employee assistance programs, counseling, life balance OSU, mediation and ombuds service and support.

And here is where we link to policies for fraud, misconduct, and near-miss accidents, as well as for those "do's" and "don'ts" for your online activity.

Student Life is Important too! This section has information about:

- Hatfield Student organization (HSO), Student Housing
- OSU's office of Student life, Student Health Services, and Student Multimedia service
- Student conduct and community standards
- Scholars Archive — a rich open source research resource for you.

ICE

In case of emergency...

Have you set up your emergency contact numbers on your cell phone (as ICE), or provided them to your supervisor, co-workers, and/or roommates?

Have you signed up for local, county and OSU alert systems — the ones that provide automated messages in emergency situations?

Are you familiar with local evacuation routes and what to do in case of emergency?

ICE provides links to information you should understand and apps which should be on your phone. Key links include:

- Adding "ICE" to your cellphone
- Alert Systems including:
 - Lincoln County Alert
 - Nixle
 - OSU Alerts
- Campus Closures
- Earthquake and Tsunami Information
- Emergency Contact Numbers
- Emergency Preparedness App
- Emergency Preparedness Bulletins.

Get to know our Emergency Contact numbers — who to call and when, for what —

For Bomb Threat, Crime, Fire, Injury or Illness, Suspicious Object or Person, call 9-1-1

For Hazardous Substance Release or Power Outage:

7:00 am — 1:00 am:
HMSC Facilities Staff 541-270-0101

1:00 am — 7:00 am:
OSU Public Safety 541-737-7000
(or 77000 from an OSU phone line at HMSC)
OSU's Public Safety Office is authorized to handle these situations for HMSC.
