4-H Soccer has been our most popular 4-H club for Latino youth. In 2014, over 1000 kids from K-12th grade played on 50 different teams during our 10 week session. There were 60 adult volunteer coaches and assistant coaches working with the program, who were all screened and received training on organizational, risk management and positive youth development. The mission of the 4-H program is to help young people build competence, confidence, connection, compassion and character as they learn and grow.

4-H is a nonprofit organization with more than 6.5 million young people across America learning leadership, citizenship and life skills.
