

COMING THIS SUMMER!

LEARN TO ADVANCE RURAL AND COMMUNITY
HEALTH EQUITY IN YOUR COMMUNITY

JUNE 24 -
JULY 20

This offering combines two courses – Families and Poverty and Community Engagement and Social Change – to examine the multiple causes and consequences of family poverty. Participants will develop a customized plan with a community and choose either credit or non-credit options.

This immersive experience includes a week on Oregon State's Corvallis campus, guest speakers, a field trip and a community-based project to explore opportunities and challenges for advancing rural and community health equity in the context of poverty.

$1,200 for non-credit option + $60 registration fee
Credit courses are charged.
Summer Session tuition and fees.
Faculty and staff benefits apply.
Partial scholarships are available.

For more information, visit
pace.oregonstate.edu/catalog/advancing-rural-community-health-equity