

Professional Skill Development ● Peer Education ● Community Liaison
Community Building ● Prestigious ● Founding Member ● Leadership

There's only two steps between you and you becoming an OSU Community Ambassador, an official ambassador of OSU to our off-campus, Corvallis community.

Students majoring in, or with interest in -
Public Health, Communications, Political Science, Business or Education,
- might be particularly interested in the OSU Community Ambassador Program.

STEP 1

ENROLL : AHE 407 – 04 - INTRODUCTION TO COMMUNIVERSITY EDUCATION

---

Spring 2015
W 2:00 – 3:50PM
2-credits

Students are empowered with the skills and knowledge to serve as community leaders, representatives and activists. Students are provided with the foundational knowledge to educate and actively engage their peers in building healthy, safe, empathetic and inclusive communities that mitigate common town-gown issues.

STEP 2

ELIGIBILITY: OSU CAMPUS AMBASSADOR

---

Pass AHE 407 and become eligible to become an OSU Campus Ambassador.

Community Ambassadors are peer educators who actively engage students in community building strategies that enhance livability and the quality of life within the off-campus, Corvallis neighborhoods they live. Community Ambassadors liaise with off-campus living groups including, but not limited to, neighborhood associations, city government officials and Greek Life. Community Ambassadors receive training to develop programming and communication that encourages inclusivity, empathy, civic responsibility and positive student-neighbor relationships.

questions or more information needed?

Corvallis Community Relations
541-737-8606
corvalliscommunityrelations@oregonstate.edu